

Do not weaken New Jersey's do not call law. We finally have some peace at home without being bothered by telemarketers. Companies that have done business with me in the last 18 months, can e-mail me if they want to communicate with me or contact me via US Mail. There is no need to contact me for additional offerings.